Scarlet figured this out and we just had to share!

Think easy gift bags, lunch bags, grocery bags, any bags!
All with perfect squared off bottoms and 2 seams!

Take a piece of rectangular fabric. Mine is a random scrap. Size will depend on how tall and wide you want the finished bag + the size of the bottom and sides.

Press fabric.

Fold Wrong Sides together and Press

Fold one side past the fold leaving 1/2 the width you want for the bottom.

Flip and fold 2nd side back to match the 1st.

Sew up the sides.

Now you have a little bag.
Turn it right side out.

Fiddle with the bottom just a bit and you get ...

Now hem and add handles/closures of your choice.

Enjoy.
